Post-Truth

Riverside

It wasn't my best day, today
I came back full of anger
Data transfer to my brain
I assume
It was not perfect

Letters showed up on the screen
Testing knowledge acquisition
Black was white and white was black
Fake dreams
Alternative visions

Headline drew attention
Then I lost my temper
Again
Miscommunication
Everyday life-long experience

In a constant lie
In a constant lie
I live
Cannot separate
Days from nights

Crowd psychology went well
I relieved all my frustration
Contributed to destroying Probably
Another innocent soul

Headline drew attention
Then I lost my temper
Again

In a constant lie
In a constant lie
I live
Cannot separate
Days from nights

In a constant lie
In a constant lie
I live
Can no longer tell
Days from nights
