She feenin' and she thirsty so she obey
She snort the coke off the dick and caught a dope case
At this point I really need a robot
The game so seperate it got it's own box

Yeah I love it when their face is down, behind up in the sky
All this ace i'm get chilly with my other mitt
I move the cake up out the city and some other shit

I pull at 3 somethin' it was feelin' tricky
Check my pistol make sure that my clip ain't empty
Waited all summer but you ass is Mickey
She only call my number when she want a quickie
Sometimes I don't understand the phone
And if you comin' we don't talk, I act like I ain't home
I'm just staring at you through this tint
I tell you exactly what you need if you just listen
I'm just rollin' up, I split the weed just like division
I don't really know this bitch I met her through my mentions
Heard I fucked her cousin good and paid her no attention
Not to mention I'm on Insta, diamonds trippin' I'm just chillin'
Like detention I'm here from a distance [?]
I got visions of testing her limits, imagine her sight
Aye, If you pass you my type
