

I second guess myself
I never ask for help
And I get insecure
Ahead of loving you

Slowly the seasons change
We watch them rearrange
And I get insecure

Keep me close
Under cover
Leave your ghost
Next to mine

Days grow old
Chasing numbers
Have my heart
Take your time

The only thing I fear is...

And not a sound can break
The silence we create
Could not communicate
Ahead of loving you

Crash like an ocean wave
You still won't wash away
Can't help but medicate

Keep me close
Under cover
Leave your ghost
Next to mine

Days grow old
Chasing numbers
Have my heart
Take your time

The only thing I fear is fear itself
Fear of losing you
When I lose myself over nothing

The only thing I fear is somewhere else
Far away from you
Where I lose myself over nothing

Been sleeping with my dreams
Think they've been saying things
That I don't want to hear
Keeping me awake

Head on my shoulder
And I know it's coming easier
In waves

Keep me close
Under cover
Leave your ghost
Next to mine

Days grow old
Chasing numbers
Have my heart
Take your time

The only thing I fear is fear itself
Fear of losing you
When I lose myself over nothing

The only thing I fear is somewhere else
Far away from you
