

Burden

RKCB

What is on your mind
Cause I need to know
You took a piece of mine
When I let you go

I've been losing sleep
I've been losing hope
What is on your mind (yeah yeah yeah)

Everytime I feel it I cannot deny
Cause I'm addicted to your heart
But Even when I feel it I remember I
Knew you were troubled from the start

I can't carry the burden of your love

Seconds slip away
Getting hard to show
The promises you made
Were untouchable

I've got no time to wait
Cause you'll never know
How close I am to breaking, close to letting go

Everytime I feel it I cannot deny
Cause I'm addicted to your heart
But Even when I feel it I remember I
Knew you were troubled from the start

I can't carry the burden of your love
