

Enough

RKCB

When I'm uncertain
You're unaware
What's taking over me
Why are you scared?
It's just an emotion
It's not really there
Don't hold it over me
I see your stare

I may have slipped and said too much
These trying times are getting tough
I'm calm now, I'm here for you
We're playing games in fading trust
I didn't mean to come undone
I'm calm now, I'm here for you

And I won't stop
Giving too much
It's not enough
It's not enough
No, I won't stop
Giving you love
It's not enough
It's not enough
No, I won't sto-

It's been hard to sleep right
Lying in your sweat
I try to hold you tight
Is nothing left?
When I bring the storm in
Do you feel at rest?
In our every morning
I can only guess

I may have slipped and said too much
These trying times are getting tough
I'm calm now, I'm here for you
We're playing games in fading trust
I didn't mean to come undone
I'm calm now, I'm here for you

And I won't stop
Giving too much
It's not enough
It's not enough
No, I won't stop
Giving you love
It's not enough
It's not enough
No, I won't sto-

I can always feel the way you move
Moving under me
I'm a bird that's losing altitude
Darling, you're the sea
I can try to fly away from you

When you comfort me
But, I'm a bird that's losing altitude
Darling, you're the sea
