

Fall Through

RKCB

Viscous between our lost time
Fleeting to find recent signs
We'll gravitate to our own
Pacing through logic we've sewn

My minds letting go of your view
Bring me to hear something new
Silence will build as we brood
Teach me restraint to fall through

Through
Through
Through

Sleeping to hide we're blind
Closing our eyes to our crime
Detach my head from it's fram
I only know to escape

My minds letting go of your view
Bring me to hear something new
Silence will build as we brood
Teach me restraint to fall through

Through
Through

Casual rush through our fate
We're latching on to loose change (change)
Haven't I told you to stay
Bottled inside here I'll wait

My minds letting go of your view
Bring me to hear something new
Silence will build as we brood
Teach me restraint to fall through

Through
