

Lights Low

RKCB

Lying half asleep
And you still find a way to stumble back to me
Stuck on the edge between reality
We could be

On our own with just the bedposts watching
In positions only sheets can see
In the morning I'll be broken hearted, hearted

You only want me when the lights low
Now that you're drinking will you say you need me?
You only touch me with the door closed
I get you off and then you're gone, gone, gone

Don't leave me in the dark
Don't leave me in the dark

Wide awake
The blackness cannot hold me
They say shadows can't be lonely
Should I stay? (Should I stay?)
This feeling's just too good to leave you bittersweet but we could be

On our own with just the bedposts watching
In positions only sheets can see
In the morning I'll be broken hearted, hearted, hearted

You only want me when the lights low
Now that you're drinking will you say you need me?
You only touch me with the door closed
I get you off and then you're gone, gone, gone

Don't leave me in the dark
Don't leave me in the dark

Don't leave me [x3]
Don't leave me in the dark
Don't leave me [x3]
Don't leave me in the dark
Don't leave me [x3]
You wanna tear us apart, oh

You only want me when the lights low
Now that you're drinking will you say you need me?
You only touch me with the door closed
I get you off and then you're gone, gone, gone

You only want me when the lights low
You only touch me with the door closed
