

Open Arms

RKCB

Say that you want to save me
Well how come you never hear me out?
And I know that you're frustrated
Are you always love?

I need to know if you don't feel the same
You keep a hold on me, when I'm turning away
I'm on my own in the cold of the rain

Will you be my shelter?
Will you be my open arms?
Will you be my shelter?
Will you be my open arms?

Lost to my own devices
Patience just seems to wear me down
Sometimes we're so self-righteous
Are you always love?

I need to know if you don't feel the same
Will you keep a hold on me, when I'm turning away
I'm on my own in the cold of the rain

Will you be my shelter?
Will you be my open arms?
Will you be my shelter?
Will you be my open arms?

Will you?
Will you be my open arms?
Will you?
Will you be my open arms?

Will you be my shelter?
Will you be my open arms?
Will you be my shelter?
Will you be my open arms?

Will you?
Will you be my open arms?
Will you?
Will you be my open arms?
