

Restless

RKCB

Don't you see my eyes are closed, can you try to wait?
Tell me what I've always known, tell me what I've always known
If you take me down this road, I could fake the blame
Long enough to let it go, long enough to let it go

Are you restless? Are you restless? Are you restless?
Are you restless? Are you restless? Are you restless?
Holding onto it, are you hesitant?
Holding onto it, are you hesitant, or are you restless?

Never meant to slow you down, gave you all wage
Promise I'll keep quiet now
But every time you dry out, you keep me in your wake
Find my way to solid ground someday

Are you restless? Are you restless? Are you restless?
Are you restless? Are you restless? Are you restless?
Holding onto it, are you hesitant?
Holding onto it, are you hesitant, or are you restless?

You say again, you say again, we take a bow
And I begin, and I begin to make a sound
But even then, but even then, you drown me out
I'm promising, I'm promising, you'll hear me now

Are you restless? Are you restless? Are you restless?
Are you restless? Are you restless? Are you restless?
Holding onto it, are you hesitant?
Holding onto it, are you hesitant, or are you restless?
