

Roaming

RKCB

Show me the weave of your secrets they're leading me home
I'll follow the pathways and patterns
That only you know
Turn yourself over
Look and the picture you've sewn
Cause Inside my body the roots of your love will take hold

I want you to show me
Slowly
What's beyond your reach
I want to you show me
Wholly
Everything you need
To be only roaming
Only roaming

Cut down your vines and attach yourself to the unknown
Pushing me forward cause nothing I have is my own
But I still dig into to your gardens to see where you've gone
Moving in circles around you as you're moving on

I want you to show me
Slowly
What's beyond your reach
I want to you show me
Wholly
Everything you need

To be only roaming
Only roaming

We become, we carry on
We become, we carry on
