

Patience, patience, love
I'll wait for you, is that enough
I taste the anxious on your tongue
When will you stop hesitating, love
Will you choose to open up
Find a reason, you can trust
I won't leave you because

I don't wanna hear it's too late
White flags making their waves
Won't slow me down, down
Slow me down, down
I've been changing my ways
Everyone running in place
Won't slow me down, down
Slow me down, down

Even if I fall, I find my strength to carry on
Keep moving past these made up walls
You know that if all I have is giving you a hand to hold
And reaching out, show me that you won't let go
Show me that you're trying, trying
And I won't keep quiet

I don't wanna hear it's too late
White flags making their waves
Won't slow me down, down
Slow me down, down
I've been changing my ways
Everyone running in place
Won't slow me down, down
Slow me down, down

I've been changing my ways
Everyone running in place
Won't slow me down, down
Slow me down, down

I don't wanna hear it's too late
White flags making their waves
Won't slow me down, down
Slow me down, down
I've been changing my ways
Everyone running in place
Won't slow me down, down
Slow me down, down
