

Pour Your Heart Out

RL Grime

You poured your heart out in my cup, yeah
But I let that cup spill
We can pick it up still
Met you in the club, yeah
So you know what's up
You know who I was, yeah
Wake up, the birds sing me a song
Maybe, maybe we can dream there again
It's too late to try to save you, my love
Can't save you, my love

You poured your heart out in my cup, yeah
But I let that cup spill
We can pick it up still
You can't really trust them
Played you like a game, babe
Now you don't know what's real
All that I know is
We can't control this
Unless let's go for it
I'm too faded
I'm too numb
I can't even feel your love, yeah

You poured your heart out in my cup, yeah
But I let that cup spill
We can pick it up still
You can't really trust them
Played you like a game, babe
Now you don't know what's real
All that I know is
We can't control this
Unless let's go for it
Yeah, I'm too faded
I'm too numb
I can't even feel your love, yeah

You poured your heart out in my cup, yeah
But I let that cup spill
We can pick it up still
Met you in the club, yeah
So you know what's up
You know who I was, yeah
Wake up, the birds sing me a song
Maybe, maybe we can dream there again
It's too late to try to save you, my love
Can't save you, my love

You poured your heart out in my cup, yeah
But I let that cup spill
We can pick it up still
All that I know is

Yeah, I'm too faded
I'm too numb
