

Close Enough (Altered)

R.LUM.R

Pretending to be myself
And I know that I'm somewhere else
All that's left is where you are
I've got a heart like a hotel but you're the only clientele
Trashed the room, paid with my card

You come, you go
Whenever you please, whenever you need to
You stay cause you know it's hard for me to disagree with you

I wanna let you go but keep you close
I wanna quit you cold but overdose
I wanna mute you loud in stereo
I need this distance to be close enough

When I'm running from what I think
I keep tripping on both my feet
Tryna keep myself away from you

You come, you go
Whenever you please, whenever you need to
You stay cause you know it's hard for me to disagree with you

I wanna let you go but keep you close
I wanna quit you cold but overdose
I wanna mute you loud in stereo
I need this distance to be close enough

I wanna let you go but keep you close
I wanna quit you cold but overdose
I wanna mute you loud in stereo
I need this distance to be close enough
