

Cold

R.LUM.R

You say you know that you love me
But it don't feel like it used to
I know we both seen it coming
Still it's gon' take some getting used to
And I feel like I led you on Cause you feel like you let me down
I thought we had it figured out
Maybe we were wrong

I guess we went cold
It's nobody's fault
And not letting go
Has frozen us both
I guess we went cold
It's nobody's fault
And trying to control
Became a stranglehold

I know it's hard being honest
Nothing hurts like the truth
It's for the best I can promise
I hope you know that it's true
I'm not tryna make it worse
I don't wanna let it hurt, no
It's better now to cut the ties
Than let it be a lie

I guess we went cold
It's nobody's fault
And not letting go
Has frozen us both
I guess we went cold
It's nobody's fault
And trying to control
Became a stranglehold

I wish I didn't think about
How much I tend to drink about
The absence of the passion
We once had and how it's passing now
I guess it's good we figured out
Before the rift got bigger how
To split the difference
I just wish the knife would quit its twisting now

I guess we went cold
It's nobody's fault
And not letting go
Has frozen us both
I guess we went cold
It's nobody's fault
And trying to control
