

Lonely

R.LUM.R

I see the moon so often
Forgot the sun comes back
I got a heart held hostage
I let the room turn black
Default to paths well trodden
So I'm never not right
Don't wanna ever be forgotten
So keep me in the light

They'd rather shoot me down than hear me out
I'd rather lose control than face my doubts
Obsessed with stress, I never figure out
And wonder what my fear's about

But even if we break somehow
Even if we lose our minds
Even if we let us down
I won't be hard to find

You won't be lonely
You won't be lonely

Another day to be lost in
I forget what for
Don't even know what I'm wanting
I just know I want more

They'd rather shoot me down than hear me out
I'd rather lose control than face my doubts
Or wonder what the fear's about

Ain't no sense in wasting time
Need someone to help you out
I won't be hard to find
And even if we break somehow
Even if we lose our minds
And even if we let us down
I won't be hard to find

You won't be lonely
You won't be lonely
You won't be lonely
You won't be lonely

You won't be lonely
But even if we break somehow
Even if we lose our minds
You won't be lonely
Even if we let us down
I won't be hard to find
(Won't be hard to find)
You won't be lonely
But even if we break somehow
Even if we lose our minds

You won't be lonely
Even if we let us down
