

Suddenly

R.LUM.R

Always thought that is was heat but
You love like it's a flavour
Tryna make be a believer
Tryna act like you're a saviour

You say you're living in a moment
You say it's only human nature
You say that love is letting go but, you don't

Way too quick to be casual
Way too late to be natural

Suddenly I don't know you
Suddenly I don't care
Suddenly it don't matter
Whether or not you're there

I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
I don't, I don't care

I'm familiar with the absence
It's a vacancy I know
And I got 20 years of practice
At letting people go

I hear everything you're saying
And everything you won't
It's like we've had this conversation, before

Way too quick to be casual
Way too late to be natural

Suddenly I don't know you
Suddenly I don't care
Suddenly it don't matter
Whether or not you're there

I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
I don't, I don't care

... don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
I don't, I don't care
I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care

Weather or not you're there

Suddenly I don't know you
Suddenly I don't care
Suddenly it don't matter

I know if you leave it's no different
It's not like you ever were here
It's strange to be suddenly missing
Something that never appeared

I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
Suddenly
I don't, I don't care
I don't, I don't care
