I see what I see (Me)
I be what I be (Me)
I'll set you free

There are so many unlucky bastards in the world
So what? Just keep going your own way
There are so many incomprehensible bastards in the world
If I feel like I'll crash into them, I'll just step on it harder
I just fuck it up (Fuck it up, bitch)
Every time you know I fuck it up (Fuck it up, you dick)
This way, I mess up again and again
I can't be a monk, others' words always misunderstand me
Not a fucking diplomat
Now that life is a bit easier, they shove responsibilities onto me
What do I represent, I only represent myself
Before I die from anger, let's say what I have to say

If I don't like someone, I just go "bang, bang"
Bang, bang, bang, I just go "bang, bang"
Whatever I do, you can't stop me now, bang, bang

I see what I see (Me)
I be what I be (Me)
I'll set you free, can't tell me nothin', I'm so far
What it do, just come
Get yo ass out the trunk

There are so many unlucky bastards in the world
So what? Just keep going your own way
There are so many incomprehensible bastards in the world
I just step on it harder, just step on it harder
Yeah, I fuck it up, I fuck it up
Hate is harmful but I suck it up
Now I'll go the other way, to the cliff
Together with brother San Yawn, I'll worry my mother
Maybe even above the law, no, never, no
I'll live a good life but you never know
Just lower your eyes, so don't provoke me
If you want to be friends, just pour me a drink, you dig?

I see what I see (Me)
I be what I be (Me)
I'll set you free
