

No One Gets Me

RMR

You're the only person I know who's down for his Everyone treats me like such a clown for this Someone get me another round of this
You'll be ride or die till I ride or die
I'll be having the fucking time of my life
But I'll be so alone if you weren't by my side, hm

'Cause no one wants to go out like they did before
No one wants to kick it like they did before
They'll be getting married till they get divorced
And I'll be waking up here on a bathroom floor

They're gonna forget me
When I'm still being messy
They all wanna press me
But no one really gets me
They say they never met me
When I'm still being messy
Let 'em all attack me
No one really gets me but you
No one really gets me but you
(So fuck the rest of 'em)

I've been talking in my sleep
I've been having crazy dreams
This some shit you won't believe
And I don't know what it means
When I wake, I'm feeling nauseous
Maybe I'm the one that's toxic
Thinking, "God, I've lost it"

'Cause no one wants to go out like they did before
No one wants to kick it like they did before
They'll be getting married till they get divorced
And I'll be waking up here on a bathroom floor

They're gonna forget me
When I'm still being messy
They all wanna press me
But no one really gets me
They say they never met me
When I'm still being messy
Let 'em all attack me
'Cause no one really gets me but you
No one really gets me but you
(No one really gets me)

They'll be a day when you will die
So many years you'll sacrifice
It's not your time to be afraid
They will conform, just find your way
Strumming away, eating your cake, dance 'til you're dull
You'll go make a few mistakes, time will tell
Get your space, try to fight off all your pride
Drunkin' nights, all equates to your fight
