Ooh

Not satisfied, I want all of it
Superstitions, got the lord on my side
You can run but you can't hide, baby
Switch up and make up a story
I can't even count how many times
I've been in and out of love, baby (In and out of love)
Walked around with a broken heart
Take it out and replace it with something much harder
I promise I'll never get diamonds locked in
