

Everything

Ro James

Embedded in my brain, I told myself I was through Loving you
Found myself crawling right back to you, yeah
You hurt me so good, that's why I can't leave you
You got me so weak like I need you
Maybe I'm addicted to the pain, oh oh oh

No one can love me like you
Believe me when I say baby
Believe me it's true
If you don't want me
One day it's cool
I just want you to know that Everything's about you, baby, everything's about you
Everything's about you

Where's my pretty eyes?
Waste me something about you baby
The sun, the moon and stars are looking down
Guiding you back to me
Every time I try to love, never mean nothing without you baby
Had it up, don't want to go another second, another minute with out you baby
Oh oh oooh
Everything's about you, everything
Everything's about you
Everything's about you
Everything's about you
Everything's about you
