

I'm Sorry (Interlude)

Ro James

When you're under the influence
You're liable to say anything
You be caught up swimming in the moment
And when you wake up, you don't remember a thing

I can't be what you need me to be for you
I'm sorry, so sorry
Cause I can't be what you, need me to be for you
I'm sorry, so sorry

I should've known, when I found you
Should've known not to fuck with you
Should've known not to lie you
But I can't let you go
Said I should've known
How I found you
That you was looking for a hero
But I can't save your soul
Said I should've known

I can't be
I can't be what you need
So sorry
