The Ride

Ro James

Let's go for a ride
Drive me for one night baby
Trust me you'll be fine
Promise not to bite baby
Cause I've been waiting all this time
Just to see your wildest side
Something that would change my mind
Forever, and ever
We'll blow some lines
Way up in the clouds
Don't care about where the time goes
Only think about now, now
Somewhere we can
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh

I pull up when you're ready, baby
But I need you to drive me crazy
Cause I've been missing something lately
And you might be just why I'm waiting

Got some time to kill, so meet me in the heels, babe
Put the silence on your phone, nobody gotta know baby
You know what you came to do
Just me and you in this empty room, yeah
Think I wanna play with you
Forever, and ever
We'll blow some lines
Way up in the clouds
Don't care about where the time goes
Only think about now, now
Somewhere we can
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh

I pull up when you're ready, baby
But I need you to drive me crazy
Cause I've been missing something lately
And you might be just why I'm waiting

Let's go for a ride
Trust me, you'll be fine
Let's go for a ride
I pull up when you're ready, baby
But I need you to drive me crazy
Cause I've been missing something lately
And you might be just why I'm waiting
