

You

Ro James

Chasing your ass too long
What? You always doing me wrong
I think that I like it
You keep me inspired, uh
Said I can have any girl I want
So, girl, you better pick up this phone
And you'll see it's me, yeah
You'll see that I'm calling (You)

Monday morning, Sunday night
I think about you all the time
Morning, noon, to Sunday night
I chase you around world a thousand times

I want you, baby
Said I only want you, baby, yeah
I only want you, oh, baby
Said I only want you baby, hey
Come on

Baptize me, baby
'Cause I'm a sinner, baby
See, I've been waiting for you too long
Girl, be my truth, yeah
'Cause I got problems before you baby
To give it to me one time, hey
Give me your vibe, baby, ooh, yeah

Monday morning, Sunday night
You're the only thing that's on my mind
Morning, noon, to Sunday night
I chase you around world a thousand times

Only want you, baby, yeah
Said I only want you oh, oh, baby, come on
I only want you, baby, yeah
I, ooh, baby, yeah, ooh

'Til the sun don't shine in the morning
Come on, baby, be mine

I want you, hey
Said I want you, baby, oh, baby
I only want you (But I want you, you don't know the half of it)
Oh, baby (But I want you, I just, I just want you bad, bad)
Said I only want you (But I want you)
Baby (You don't know the half of it)
Yeah (But I want you)
Come on (I just, I just want you bad, bad)
