Roachford

She plays a dangerous game
I can't deny
I know she's got a man
Someone else in her life
I try to walk away
Cause she ain't mine
I try to walk away
I tried so many times

But I'm just so addicted (so addicted)
It's hard to say goodbye
The girl is so addictive (so addictive)
She's got just what I like
I'm trying to be strong
But she's got me weak
She's giving me every thing that I need
How can I resist it
You got me addicted

So let me stay
One more day
In your arms

Want to give what you like
Want to have you here tonight
Cause you got me weak like Superman and Kryptonite
Want to give what you like
Want to have you here tonight
Cause you got me weak like Superman and Kryptonite
Want to have you here tonight
Blow your mind like dynamite
Because I can't stop wanting you
Because you got me hoping now
Feel like you're a part of me
Like we were just meant to be Together

But I'm just so addicted
It's hard to say goodbye
The girl is so addictive
She's got just what I like
I'm trying to be strong
But she's got me weak
She's giving me every thing that I need
How can I resist it
You got me addicted

So let me stay
One more day
In your arms
Let me lay
Here beside you
Until the Moon becomes the Sun

Because you're so addictive
Girl, you're so addictive
Yeah, you're so addictive

Yeah, you're so addictive
You got just what I like
I'm strung out tonight
