

Get Ready!

Roachford

Just how long can a soul be bound and chained?
Just how long can the walls of the past remain?
Just how long can a mountain be too high to climb?
Nothing don't last forever, everything changes in time

So get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
The dawning, the dawning of life

Just how long can a lie keep on running free?
'Til it gets to the point where the truth's plain to see
And won't you tell me how much can somebody take?
'Cause when the pressure is on that somebody's gonna break, yea h so

So get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
The dawning, the dawning of life

Just how long is too late for a change?
Just how much do you care if tomorrow's still the same?
And just how long can the mountain be too high to climb?
Nothing don't last forever, it just changes in time

Get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
The dawning, yes I'm talking bout the dawning
The dawning, the dawning of life

Get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
Get ready, get ready for the dawning
The dawning, the dawning of life

Now we got to get ready, get ready for the dawning
