

Ride The Storm

Roachford

Hey, my soul sister, don't you look so sad
It's time to stop thinking about what you ain't got
And see the things you have
Now, don't you go and throw it all, throw it all away
Tomorrow doesn't have to be just another yesterday

Ride the storm, life goes on
Life goes on, ride the storm

'Cause I can't watch you drown away
Drown in your own tears
Everybody gets hurt sometimes
And everybody has fears, yeah

You say you want to end it all
But don't you get that rad, baby
'Cause if you want the good things
You got to taste the bad sometimes
That's how it is

Ride the storm, life goes on,
Life goes on, ride the storm

'Cause I know that life can get hazy
But don't let this world drive you crazy
Hear me, baby

So don't let the your world turn a permanent shade of blue
You gotta learn to kick the habit, baby
Before it starts to kick you
Yes, it will

Don't you know you're bold enough
And strong enough to fight?
And somehow, and somehow
You know it's gonna be alright
That's how it is

Ride the storm, life goes on
Oh, yeah
Life goes on, ride the storm
It goes on, it goes on, it goes on
Ride the storm, life goes on
You gotta ride
Life goes on, ride the storm
Ooh...
Ride the storm, life goes on
Goes on, goes on
Life goes on, ride the storm
Ooh...
