

All The Same

ROAM

11 PM leaving again,
I've got no time, patience or regret.
I won't be weakened, I'm still uneven,
and I'll leave it all behind and forget.

The words we spoke when we tripped up and broke our teeth,
Ignore my apathy
'cause I just don't care anymore.

It's all the same to me, I'm not losing sleep,
You drag yourself down, but meanwhile we're moving.
It's all the same to me, I'm not losing sleep,
You drag yourself down, but meanwhile we're moving

On with the road we decided,
To take when we all coincided.
Move past the things that cause you tension,
Ignore it to rebuild and strengthen,
Forgot my sense of self perception and I just don't care anymore.

It's all the same to me, I'm not losing sleep,
You drag yourself down, but meanwhile we're moving.
And it's all the same to me, I'm not losing sleep,
You drag yourself down, but meanwhile we're moving on.

It's in your head you've been bleeding out till now,
So cut it out, just remove the things you doubt.
It's in your head, you've been bleeding out till now,
Your run through is see through.
It's in your head you've been bleeding out till now,
So cut it out, just remove the things you doubt.
It's in your head, you've been bleeding out till now,
Your run through is see through.

All the same to me, the same to...
All the same
You make it more than it needs to be, it's all the same to me.
