

Go and decay, I'm finding out
I was never awake enough til now
Cause the clock kept running and I still had nothing
You can delay it, oh no doubt
You can bury your burdens in the ground
But they'll just start growing out

You've been frozen in place comparing to
The next above, the same as you
There was never a thing you couldn't do

I don't wanna wake up when I flatline
Thinking that I've wasted all my time
I don't wanna hope that I'll be fine
Run away, won't run away
I don't wanna know now what I'll know then
Never wanna feel my heart stop beating
I don't wanna grow out of this feeling
I don't wanna wake up when I'm dead

Just like the way the water runs and never stops for anyone
Seconds, moons and years have gone away
But if I'm never awake then how could I be too late?
How could I be the reason for this all today?

You've been frozen in place comparing to
The next above, the same as you
There was never a thing you couldn't do

I don't wanna wake up when I flatline
Thinking that I've wasted all my time
I don't wanna hold back, I'll be fine
Run away, won't run away
I don't wanna know now what I'll know then
Never wanna feel my heart stop beating
I don't wanna grow out of this feeling
I don't wanna wake up when I'm dead

So don't wait now for something to give
To just fall into place, find a reason to live
Don't wait now
For something to give
To just fall into place, find a reason to live

I don't wanna wake up when I flatline
Thinking that I've wasted all my time
I don't wanna hope that I'll be fine
Run away, won't run away
I don't wanna wake up when I flatline
Thinking that I've wasted all my time
I don't wanna hold back, I'll be fine
Run away, won't run away
I don't wanna know now what I'll know then
Never wanna feel my heart stop beating
I don't wanna grow out of this feeling
I don't wanna wake up when I'm dead
And I don't wanna wake up when I'm dead
