Feeling good, doing great
You know me, I can't complain

Feeling good, doing great
You know me, I can't complain

It's not enough to fill your plate
The more you have, the more that you feel you're entitled to take

Chewing gum that lost its taste
A great escape to the same place
Change the rules but not the game
Don't conflate your fear with hate
Chewing gum that lost its taste
A great escape to the same place
Change the rules, but not the game
Don't conflate violence with strength
Chewing gum that lost its taste
A great escape to the same place
