

Duck Or Ape

ROAR

You drag your bones across the earth
Like everyone who dragged theirs first
A speech, a prayer, a stone to read
A wooden case for worms to eat

Corpses met with Hallmark afterthoughts
Apparently they're sorry for the loss

It's sad but true and tough for you
Your brain's synaptic buzz is through Exist to die and still live on
To haunt the ones who done you wrong

20 grams of weight and the soul's escaped
You're coming back a duck or an ape
