

Easy

ROAR

I'll be an anchor
But I won't bring you down
Somehow

My love is easy
Like breathing anything

Stay with me
I know you're exhausted
I'll be what you want, now
What was it you wanted?

My love is easy
Like breathing anything

I try to look cute when I'm frozen in fear
I die inside
And smile from ear to ear
Then hope that you
Will notice me here

All you have to do is call me
Every day without you's so-o
Lonely

My love is easy
Like breathing anything
