

Nothing Can't Hurt Me

ROAR

You remain indifferent when we brush hands
I'm annihilated right where I stand
Touching the air between you and me, I sleep
To wake up feeling empty

Oh no, nobody hurt me
I fu-fill my own prophecy
Oh no, nobody hurt me
I fu-fill my own prophecy

I do my best
Just to try and accept
That we move in opposite directions

I do my best
Just to try and accept
That we move in opposite directions

I do my best
Just to try and accept
That we move in opposite directions
