After All

Rob Baird

Well the night was sinking slowly
When you stole me
Now that time has gone
Do you miss me
Would you forgive me
If I called
After all?

We were dancing between the midnights
Crossing blurry lines
Stealing wrongs
As long as I'm here singing your song
Trying to belong
For no one
For no one

All these long nights
All these street lights
Bleed into the fog
Is it madness
Turning sadness
Into what don't belong?
I never had a chance
After all

Leaning on the lonely
That's come to know me
For so long
'Cause I'm on the drag
Waving a white flag
For no one
For no one

All these long nights
All these street lights
Bleed into the fog
Is it madness
Turning sadness
Or am I coming on too strong?
I never had a chance
After all

Maybe when time turns to rust
I won't be begging for things I already love

All these long nights
All these street lights
Bleed into the fog
Is it madness
Turning sadness
Into what don't belong?
I never had a chance, baby
All turning blue to gray
It was all up for you to save me
After all
