Can't Stop Running

Rob Baird

I've seen the stars fall and the lightning strike
Well, I ain't throwin' punches but I'm ready to fight
For a lonely ghost just to pull me through
Well, I can't stop runnin' till I find you

I keep on drivin' when the rain falls down
Let the engine hum with lonesome sounds
'Cause I felt the feelin' and it's nothing new
I can't stop runnin' till I find you

Hell, I'll fly in the sky in a black wing plane
Climb a mountain just to scream your name
When everybody's lyin' I swear it's the truth
No I can't stop runnin' till I find you

I got the engine runnin' just spinnin' those wheels
With a fire that's burnin' and a heart that feels
There ain't a damn thing that I wouldn't do
I'm gonna keep runnin' till I find you
I can't stop runnin' till I find you

There are, devils and dreamers, wild and free
Saints and sinners, just like me
Rollin' down this black highway, till the night turns blue
I'm gonna keep runnin' till I find you
I can't stop runnin' till I find you
