Emily

Rob Baird

No one but you can save me from myself
I was drowning there was nobody else
When I was chasing street lights on the wrong side of town
You lifted me up, baby please, don't set me down

No one but you color in the gray
Make sense of the chaos and push it all away

Oh Emily, you're good to me more than I deserve
Been walking around all night long everywhere that I turn
No one but you
No one but you

Before you caught my eye
I didn't know didn't know I could fly

Oh Emily, you're good to me, more than I deserve
Been walking around all night long everywhere that I turn
No one but you
No one but you
No one but you
