Green Grass

Rob Baird

Well, I am lost but I'm still dreaming
Of that green grass of home
Your love that's the only reason
I'd had the will to go

Rivers don't flood if there ain't no rain
Hearts don't break if there ain't no pain
I've been going out of my way and then some

Heaven doesn't happen overnight
Still so many roads I want to drive
Even though I ain't got no direction

Well, I am lost but I'm still dreaming
Of the green grass of home
Your love that's the only reason
I'd had the will to go

Well, it's been so long since I moved away
Momma still calling on the holiday
And the evils of this world trying to tempt me

When this train can't even find a track
Well, I turn to you never look back
'Cause all along you love has never left me

Well, I am lost but I'm still dreaming
Of that green grass of home
Your love that's the only reason
I'd had the will to go

Gonna make it I swear
Gonna make it I swear
To that green grass of home

Well, I'm lost but still breathing
Keep myself afloat
It's time I still believe in
Never letting go

Well, I am lost but I'm still dreaming
Of that green grass of home
Your love that's the only reason
I'd had the will to go

Gonna make it I swear
Gonna make it I swear
Gonna make it I swear
To that green grass of home
