

Lonely Road

Rob Baird

I don't care what you do to me
You set me out, just let me be
I'd rather live, wild and free
Than stand on this burning street

I'm leavin' down a lonely road
Sorry babe, but I have to go
Couldn't stop me, oh no
I'm leavin' down a lonely road

I've seen the sun rise, too many times
While I was passin' those highway signs
It don't matter, I don't mind
I like the way that the engine whines

I'm leavin' down a lonely road
Sorry babe, but I have to go
Can't stop me, oh no
I'm leavin' down a lonely road

I don't care when the cold wind blows
I don't mind if the wheels turn slow
That's the beauty being, far from home
When you're already too far gone

They say I'll be back someday
But I don't think that I'll ever change

This lonely road
Guess what now, oh you already know
I ain't comin' back, oh no
I'm leavin' down a lonely road
This lonely road
Sorry baby but I have to go
Couldn't stop me, oh no
I'm leavin' down a lonely road
