

Maybe Tonight

Rob Baird

Maybe tonight
I'll knock on your door
And ask if I can come in
Maybe tonight
I'll sleep on the floor
Just like I did in the end

Maybe we could feel better
Better than we're feeling right now

Maybe tonight
Maybe tonight
Maybe tonight
I'll be around

Maybe tonight
Get drunk all alone
Call up somebody like you
Tell her the things
That I said all along
Even though none of it's true

I know I can do better
Better than I'm doing right now

Maybe tonight
Maybe tonight
Maybe tonight
I'll be around

Maybe tonight
All over town
Looking for something that we've never found
Too tired to dance
Too tired to fight
Wishing that I could just fade out of sight
Maybe tonight

I know that I can do better
Better than I'm doing right now

Maybe tonight
Maybe tonight
Maybe tonight
I'll be around
