

Running Away

Rob Baird

Hold back those tears baby there ain't
No crying here you know
I got to go when it's all, it's all go wrong
Your pretty face
Ain't scared of using your prayers and you know
That I'm missing you and that's what I'm supposed to do when

I tried to make our lives go right
But it just don't happen that way
This town is bringing me down and there's nothing, nothing left
to say
I'm running, running away

Out the front door
Keeps hurting more and more
No, you can't stop me, you can't stop believer [?] car ain't drive
No need to stop at the light
Gotta pick that train, gotta catch me playing

I tried to make our lives go right
But it just don't happen that way
This town is bringing me down and there's nothing, nothing left
to say
I'm running, running away

Let's fly out tonight
Close my house thinking about the time
That we spent together
One more floor, up and go
Nothing left to say
I'm running, running away

I tried to make our lives go right
But it just don't happen that way
to say
I'm running, running away
Running away
