Every Single Day

Rob Mills

Seems only yesterday
When you put your faith away
And you slammed the door and locked your heart away now
Everything you trusted in Everything you could have been
It's like a memory that's fading away, well
I know you've been hurt, baby
I've been there too
But it's only fear that's holding on to you

'Cause every single day for the rest of your life
Don't be left behind
'Cause you know what it's like
Won't forget the words from your father
Believe in no other
Don't ever give up the fight
'Cause every single day

Do you remember when
No one was listening
You could disappear and no one would notice
Like a childhood dream
You wanted everything
You're still missing what you really wished for

Now they know your name but, they don't know you.
It's time to make a change in everything you do

I don't know where the story ends
But all that I know is the sun will rise again

I know you've been hurt, baby
I've been there too
But it's time to make a change in everything you do
