Games I Play

Rob Stone

I made mistakes
But this game I play
Ladies call my phone
Because the car I race, hey

I won't stop
No, I'm on that chase
I gotta get my spot
A new tour, new date

A new broad, new cake
I'm on my way

A new star up in the place
I brought my whole damn gang in here

I'm never complacent
My Diamonds on me Blangin'
Nigga what can I say, Get rich

Getting rich
It's been a long time coming
Been grinding all summer
In the winter getting bundles

I'm a full time hustler
A part time lover
My mama said look boy you can be anything you wanna

I'ma get it cause I gotta feed my son
These Niggas creeping so I gotta keep a gun
You see me, you best believe that I getting to the money

I'm a full time hustler
A part time lover
I'm the one

I made mistakes
But this game I play
Ladies call my phone
Because the car I race, hey

I won't stop
No, I'm on that chase
I gotta get my spot
A new tour, new date

A new broad, new cake
I'm on my way

A new star up in the place
I brought my whole damn gang in here

I'm never complacent
My Diamonds on me Blangin'
Nigga what can I say, Get rich

People always acting like they know
They're asking for a check
But never check to see what's wrong

My bad I had some things
That I let catch me by the throat
Sometimes I overthink and get upset
When I'm alone

But with that I know
Don't come no doe
Don't come no hoes
Don't come my purpose

I hope it's worth every ache inside my bones
I hope it's worth every day I hurt
And every day I'm nervous

Don't take this personal
I'll be the last man standing
If the world can't manage

I'm contemplating whether I should finish what I started

If I let this fall apart
Who else gon' step up in my honor?
I'm the One

I made mistakes
But this game I play
Ladies call my phone

I won't stop
No, I'm on that chase
I gotta get my spot

A new broad, new cake
I'm on my way

A new star up in the place

I'm never complacent
My Diamonds on me Blangin'
