

Or What?

Rob Stone

Is you fucking with a nigga or what?
Is you rolling with a nigga or what?
(What's up? What's up?)
Late night I'm trying to figure what's up
I hit the club and then I'm picking you up

Is you fucking with a nigga or what?
Is you rolling with a nigga or what?
(What's up? What's up?)
Late night I'm trying to figure what's up
I hit the club and then I'm picking you up
(Just let me know something)

We pulled the whips out fuck it
They loved it
Just hit the 405 slidin' with my niggas we blunted
I'm feeling Godly

Late night looking for a Goddess
God body shining
Got more body than Rihanna
I'ma find her

The henny got me ready for fonk
And I'm still waiting for her text so she can tell me it's on
She fuck with me that's over anybody
I showed her to make 100 thousand

Is you fucking with a nigga or what?
Is you rolling with a nigga or what?
(What's up? What's up?)
Late night I'm trying to figure what's up
I hit the club and then I'm picking you up

Is you fucking with a nigga or what?
Is you rolling with a nigga or what?
(What's up? What's up?)
Late night I'm trying to figure what's up
I hit the club and then I'm picking you up
(Just let me know something)

We used to lock lips in public
I loved it
If you just hold me down I won't put nothing above it
If I start crashing out would you make a quick judgment?
Or would you be around to tell the judge I ain't done shit?
You ready?

Girl you ready then just get in
Let it set in
We can be direct
And I give you can direction
Or you can get steppin'
Hope you're gettin' the message

You love me I love you but love me too
You don't know the half of what I been through

You may be so surely unsure of me
But I'll forever keep it real and I'll be all you need

Is you fucking with a nigga or what?
Is you rolling with a nigga or what?
(What's up? What's up?)
Late night I'm trying to figure what's up
I hit the club and then I'm picking you up
