All The Best Things

Rob Thomas

I wanna get by,
I wanna get high,
I wanna live long enough to tell the story.
Wanna shine like a headlight,
But I've never been life like.
I've strayed off course,
then all the maps were stolen.

And all my fears get thrown by the riverside,
Damn, can't walk, but I wanna try,
Fall down on the other side,
I call out, but don't hear nothing,
I never will and I never would,
Fear running through my blood,
and I'm fallen, fallen.

I should've known,
I'd fall like a stone,
I'm losing all the best things,
I spin like a wheel,
I try not to feel,
I need something to save me,
Can't let go,
Don't wanna get old,
Don't wanna get so caught up that I can't let this go.
Got a run in my soul,
In my soul!
Now I'm losing all the best things,
All the best things.

I'm sleeping on nails,
Running on glass,
I'd walk through fire, but I'm scared of burning.
Maybe I'm too selfish
But I can't help it.
Maybe I feel like it's all about me.

And all these words keep coming out my mouth and I
Feel bad but I can not stop there,
Sweat pouring off my brow,
My body aching,
Don't know how,
I'll make it out this time,
I see the light that's just outside,
I'm calling, calling.

And I should've known,
I'd fall like a stone,
I'm losing all the best things,
I spin like a wheel,
I try not to feel,
I need something to save me,
Can't let go,
Don't wanna get old,
Don't wanna get so caught up that I can't let this go.
Got a run in my soul,
In my soul!

Now I'm losing all the best things.
All the best things.
All the best things.

I should've known,
I'd fall like a stone,
I'm losing all the best things,
I spin like a wheel,
I try not to feel,
I need something to save me,
Can't let go,
Don't wanna get old,
Don't wanna get so caught up that I can't let this go.
Got a run in my soul,
In my soul!
Now I'm losing all the best things.
All the best things.
