(Run that back, Turbo)

Huh

Lost a couple of niggas I love, I ain't making peace for no nigga

Ridin' with these three dimes, 49 ain't cryin', I ain't have no feelings

I been tryna get way higher than Wayne, I ain't got no ceilings
I split all my checks with my blood partner, I was broke with 'em, huh

I was on your side, I couldn't believe you lied

I done came so far from the hood but I crawled to the top

I was on house arrest eight months, cooped up at mamas spot

Still sellin' P's off her front porch, I made her spizzy hot

"4, you think you gon' grow to get old?" Prolly not

I'm takin' them drugs for the cold, tryna stop

My mind in the projects, my soul here, I ain't lyin'

They won't catch me slippin', I don't slip, clutch and fire

Loso could've died when I got shot, he still alive

Why the fuck I'm still on front line? Why you ain't slidin'?

I been tryna cope with this pain but it hurt a lot

I've been livin' two different lives from time to time

I was livin' tele to tele before I signed

I was takin' trips to the country to sell a pound

Keeping 'em from 'round, all them fuck niggas let me down

I could've been rich but I wasn't ridin' dick for clout

I wasn't out here tryna be buddy-buddy with no nigga like, you know what I'm sayin'?

Like these niggas be used to niggas comin' around, know what I'm sayin'?

Gotta act like I like you, act like it don't

Man, I don't know how to do that, know what I'm sayin'?

Yeah, I come from the projects, I got wavy than tsunami's

Bro don't know no jit shit, but I swear he caught a body

We been gettin' back on them niggas bad, we fat foxin'

I get out my body when I pop a OxyContin

Real niggas don't fall out with real niggas, bein' honest

It ain't cool to throw salt with bitches, I'm bein' honest

I learned that you learn when you listen, I'm bein' honest

I was just locked up in detention, I'm bein' honest

Pussy got a box on the back of the GAT but he ain't boxing

I was sixteen sellin' good weed, reing-up with profit

Lil' bro, you gon' fall before you climb, I'm bein' honest

You gon' see the dark before you shine, I'm bein' honest
