

Don't Lose Your Faith In Me

Robben Ford

I let you down
And I know it
And it was hard
For you to take
My love is real
Let me show it
So I never see
Your heart break

And so I'm here with you now
Looking for forgiveness
Looking for forgiveness
And asking please
Don't lose your faith in me

So many things
I could have done
To let you know
That I was there
A selfish heart
Will take for granted
The beautiful things that come
When someone cares

And so I'm here with you now
Looking for forgiveness
Looking for forgiveness
And asking please
Don't lose your faith in me

The road I sometimes must call home
Can take you to your limits
You're someone you don't know

Don't lose your faith in me

And so I'm here with you now
Looking for forgiveness
Looking for forgiveness
And asking please
Don't lose your faith in me
