

Willing to Wait

Robben Ford

Willing to wait
Outside your window
Put in my time
Under your sky

Just a child of the weather
Just a child of the moon glow
Slipping on schemes, tripping on dreams
That I will put aside

I've set you free
I feel the wind blow
In perfect time
We will collide

As the moon trips across the sky
Keeping a gentle eye
Sending peaceful dreams

Super smile in it's super flight
Beaming quiet light
Wishing you goodnight
