Hell's Half Acre

Robbie Robertson

Yeah, it's way up in the Black Hills Where we come from There's a girl and she warned me Don't pick up that gun, gun

Oh, by the law of the land By the promise that might is right She would hold me and cry Don't you go off the fight

Somebody knocking at my door Oh, I been called to war Say goodbye to Tobacco Road Wear my colors, call my brothers And for my country I'll go

Down on Hell's Half Acre and again Shakin' with fever, come again Rumble in the jungle Oh down on Hell's Half Acre and again

Oh, she wrote me in a letter
And said, "What have they done?" Oh, my angel
Placed a crown of thorns
On this native son, like that

Oh, maybe they're right
Oh, but maybe they're wrong
Oh, but what can I do
You're not here you're gone

Somethin' in the air is much too quiet Hear my heartbeat, oh The storms that rages from within Three times thunder, blood runs cold Got this wound on my soul

Down on Hell's Half Acre and again Walkin' on fire, come again Trouble in the wasteland Down on Hell's Half Acre and again

Oh, back in the land where buffalo roam
Oh, is this my home
She said, "You've changed, you're not the same"
Clouds of napalm and the opium
The damage was already done

Down on Hell's Half Acre and again Shakin' with fever and again Rumble in the jungle Oh, down on Hell's Half Acre

Oh, down on Hell's Half Acre
Walkin' on fire
We got trouble in the wasteland
Jisten down a Herl' Gr. Half Acre and again
