

Andy Warhol

Robbie Williams

When I was a young boy
I was frightened of the teachers
I didn't learn nothing
Cause I couldn't understand it
I'm a little too much
Then not enough
And all the kids were violent
Cause the town was rough

Hey babies
It's the Eighties
Electric blue
Pure shock
Cocaine in the bathroom
You like my shoes?
I like your top
Oh, let's rock

We're with Andy Warhol at Studio 54
That's right, ah ha, oh yeah
When you come down
You've gotta ride the white horse
That's right, ah ha, oh yeah

Could go bananas, ah ha
I'm off this planet, ah ha
Embrace the madness, ah ha

I always felt different
The world felt strange
And if your gonna play out
Then you've got to be brave
Everyone was angry
Cause no one had nothing
And we hoped for the best
Maybe come to something

Hey babies
It's the Eighties
Success
Lighten up
Poppers on the dance floor
You like my shoes?
I like your Swatch
Oh, let's rock

We're with Andy Warhol at Studio 54
That's right, ah ha, oh yeah
The boys are with the boys
And the girls are naked on the floor
That's right, ah ha, oh yeah

Could go bananas, ah ha
Ha, ha, yeah

Could go bananas, ah ha
Ha, ha, yeah

Welcome to our club
The future has arrived
Only the chosen are allowed inside
Bowie's at the door
Tom Tom Ford
With the best of the best
And we're looking so fresh
And everybody's dressed for success
Oh yes

Hey babies
It's the Eighties
Pure shock
You like my shoes?
I like your top

We're with Andy Warhol at Studio 54
