Nice As A Fool Can Be

Robert Cray

You take my money and leave Trying to leave me all alone That don't bother me so much But you left your poor baby child alone But I'm nice

Nice as a fool can be But if I ever get my hands on you, baby They'll have the judge do something nice for me

You come home in the morning After running the streets all night long Now how in the world can you expect me to be nice When all the time you're gone?

But still I'm nice I'm nice as a fool can be But if I ever get my hands on you, baby They'll have the judge do something nice for me

You told me that you loved me You'd always be my pet But soon as I take my eyes off you, baby Look what I get

But still I'm nice I'm nice as a fool can be But if I ever get my hands on you, baby They'll have the judge do something nice for me

I'm nice So nice I'm nice, yes I am So nice You're leaving me all alone You left your little child at home Oh, but I still love you, I love you baby I feel nice, too nice, yes I am Nice, oh yeah I'm a nice, mellow person I'm nice
