

You Must Believe in Yourself

Robert Cray

I was afraid
All my life
Yes I was!
'Cause a big inch part of my twous
Was the darkness of the night, yeah

I've grown wise enough
Wise enough to realize
That you must believe in yourself, yeah

The call of the needs
That's been given to you, yes
Reproduce the most that make
A mend for something new, yeah

'Cause, you gotta survive
You can make it if you try
You must believe in yourself
(That's what you gotta do now!)

Yeah!

I'm gonna wear
A golden robe
Yes I am!
'Cause I've learned to respect myself
And work round before my ghost
Yes I did!

So I've got, got my game
I've been doing my own thing
You must believe in yourself

That's what you gotta do now!
You must believe in yourself
What you gotta do
You must believe in yourself
You must believe in yourself
You must believe in yourself
You must believe in yourself

You must believe in yourself
You must believe in yourself
You must believe in yourself

Believe in yourself
Believe in yourself
Believe in yourself
